SAFE, GENTLE REMEDY CLEANSES YOUR KIDNEYS

For centuries GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been a standard household remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and stomach trouble, and all diseases connected with the urinary organs. The kidneys and bladder are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters, the purifiers of your blood. If the poisons which enter your system through the blood and stomach are not entirely thrown out by the kidneys and bladder, you are doomed.

Weakness, sleeplessness, nervousness, dizziness, headache, stomach trouble, backache, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gail stones, gravel, difficulty when urinating, cloudy and bloody urine, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago, all warn you to look after your kidneys and bladder. All these indicate some weakness of the kidneys or other organs or that the enemy microbes which are always present in your system have attacked your weak spots. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are what you need.

They are not a "patent medicine," nor a "new discovery." For 200 years they have been a standard household remedy. They are the pure, original imported Haarlem Oil your great-grandmother used, and are perfectly harmless. The healing, soothing oil soaks into the cells and lining of the kidneys and through the bladder, driving out the poisonous germs. New life, fresh strength and health will come as you continue the treatment. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day; they will keep you in condition and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not delay a minute. Delays are especially dangerous in kidney and bladder trouble. All druggists sell GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They will refund the money if not as represented. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported direct from the laboratories in Holland. They are prepared in correct quantity and convenient form, are easy to take and are positively guaranteed to give prompt relief. In three sizes, sealed packages. Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL. Accept no substitutes.—Adv.

Hot Stuff.

One negro porter was getting enthusiastic over cigars. "Brother," he said to his companion, "when I die I want a box of cigars tucked under one arm."

"What kind do you prefer?" asked the other.

"Just anything. A 27-cent near-Havana will do."

"Near Havana? Say, when you're dead for two days you'll think Havana used to be as cold as the winds that blow over Greenland's icy mountains."

But She Suffered.

"Ah!" she sighed, "for many years I've suffered from dyspepsia."

"And don't you take anything for it?" her friend asked. "You look well enough."

"Oh," she replied, "my husband has it—not I."

NEW YORKER IS INDIGNANT

However, Not Many Public Parks Are in as Bad Condition as the One He Describes.

In the latest bulletin of the Municipal Art society, C. W. S. is justifiably bitter in his comment on the waste of opportunity in the so-called city parks of New York. "When is a city park not a park?" he asks, and answers: "When it ceases to offer either grass, flowers, or the shade of trees; when, for instance, it has a large granite basin or fountain without water, which is gradually broken up and carried away; when, at one end it harbors a ship and at the other a bombproof cairn for explosives; when one-third of it is roughly fenced off for a few years while the subway burrows its slow course within a yard of the grass surface, destroying for the time the plantation and preventing for all time the growth of shade trees over it, and when this subway seizes more of its precious space for entrances; when the few surviving trees, uncared for in recent years, are left to die limb by limb and break down gradually, and their place is filled by no new shade trees; and when, in consequence, such a forlorn patch of barren ground and concrete as this has become stands year after year through the hot summers neglected, dusty, and shadeless; in a word, when its name is Union square. The nursemaid in Punch being asked by the little boy at the station: 'What is a junction?' replies: 'A place where two tracks separate.' With equal truth this square is to us a place where our idea of a park and its reality separate."

PUTTING IVY TO GOOD USE

How the Plant Was Cleverly Trained to Hide the Naked Ugliness of a Windmill.

The highly decorative effect of ivy growing against the walls of castles and other buildings was discovered some centuries ago, but it remained for a very modern farmer to turn the climbing habit of the wild grape to good account, remarks the Popular

The Skeleton of the Windmill Has a Dress That Eve Might Have Envied.

Science Monthly. The photograph tells the story. The windmill was quickly turned from a bare framework, suggesting in its ugliness the inartistic but highly useful framework of a skyscraper, to a bower of beauty. As a matter of fact, the farmer used both the wild grape and the ivy (not the kind that poisons), and in two years had the framework well covered. And, as the owner said: "It didn't cost much." Moreover, the vine-clad windmill is a thing of beauty if not a joy forever.

Clean Up the Roadside.

Why not now the weeds along the roadside? How much prettier the road will look. It only takes a few minutes. The knowledge that you have beautified the world a bit is pay.

Useful Trees Needed.

In many countries of Europe the highways are lined with fruit trees, pruned each year by the government. In this country our highways are decorated with hedges, a few tame shade trees, willows, catalpas, elms, cottonwood, poplar, soft maple, box elder—all useless trees. We need black walnut, butternut, hickory, oak, hard maple for sugar and various fruit trees. We need spruce for airplanes and pine trees for lumber. Thorn hedges are a nuisance. We need hazelnuts, mulberries, cherries, currants, raspberries, blackberries, apples, plums, crabs, peaches, pears, grapes. Where is a more suitable place than our highways and streets?

A public landscape gardener would more than earn his keep and be an added blessing to the people each year. This functionary could be given authority to root out such obnoxious shrubs as the barberry bush.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Adv.

With a Different Meaning.

Two neighbors were talking about the young man who had lived off his mother all of his married life. He had a nice home, etc., but the neighbors knew he had never made enough money to pay for it. They also knew of his mother's "helping him out."

"That fellow sort of reminds me of what Abraham Lincoln said one time," remarked the first neighbor.

"How's that?" queried the second.

"Lincoln said: 'All I have and all I hope to be I owe to my mother.'"

He Couldn't Spell It.

In the spelling list for a class in a certain Indianapolis school were the words singing and singeing. The class was asked to write sentences using these words to show that they knew the correct meaning of each. One little fellow, Robert, wrote: "The Italians are a singing nation." "The allies will soon be singeing the beard of the kaiser."

With sideward glances he watched his teacher mark his paper and timidly asked:

"Is it all right?"

"Yes," she said, "but the kaiser has no beard; he has a mustache."

I know, I know; but I wanted 100 on my paper, and I couldn't spell mustache."—Indianapolis News.

WORLD HAS CHANGED SOME

Reasons Why Feats of Phenomenally Strong Men Are Not Likely to Be Duplicated.

George Hackenschmidt was a pretty strong man and many are the tales told of his wondrous feats of strength. But the Russian lion was a weakling compared to a certain man who lived on the southern coast of Ireland.

It is said of this particular Irishman that when he went fishing for whales he always used a three-inch hawser for a line and a 600-pound anchor for a hook. He'd bait his hook with a couple of sheep, or maybe a calf, whirl it around his head two or three times and send it sailing out into the ocean.

We forgot to mention that he usually used an old cannon or something for a sinker.

Atlas used to do a pretty neat little turn in holding the world on his shoulders. But it must be remembered that in his time the world wasn't as heavy as it is now. There weren't so many people and practically no heavy machinery, and big guns and monuments and bridges and Wilbert Robinson and Bill Taft and others.—Kansas City Star.

Not a New Experience.

Two recruits were waiting for further instructions at Camp Dodge, Ia. One of the men, striving to be sociable, said: "Well, I suppose this war business will be new work to us."

"O, I don't know," replied the other.

"You see, I have been married to the wrong girl for five years."

Modified Request.

A tramp went into a farmhouse recently, and, seeing no one about but a very old woman, he said in fierce tone: "Give me a good drink of milk, or else—"

But Pat Mulcahey, the owner of the house, came behind him suddenly, and, catching him by the neck, said:

"Else what?"

"Else water," said the tramp humbly.

Honest Advertising.

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher Honestly advertised, Honestly placed before the public and from which he Honestly expects to receive his reward.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Extracts from Letters by Grateful Parents to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Mrs. John W. Derrick, of Lexington, S. C., says: "My children cry for Castoria, I could not do without it."

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gaines, of Ripley, Tenn., say: "We enclose our baby's picture hoping it will induce some poor tired mothers to give your Castoria a trial. We have used it since baby was two weeks old."

Mrs. J. G. Farman, of Nashville, Tenn., says: "The perfect health of my baby is due to your Castoria—the first and only medicine he has taken. He is never satisfied with one dose, he always cries for more."

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, of Stevens Point, Wis., say: "When our baby was two weeks old he cried so much we did everything for him, then got some Castoria and he is now strong and fat. We would not be without it, and are very thankful to you."
